DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on December 28, 2007 has been entered. Claims 7-20 remain withdrawn from consideration as drawn to a non-elected invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1, and 25-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Meyer et al., US 7,188,186.

Meyer discloses providing digital content and stored advertisements, e.g. Figs 1a-c, claims 1-3, 18 and 27. Meyer does not specifically disclose a specific sequence file indexed to regulate a transmission order for a plurality of service unit data.

Official Notice is taken that a sequence file indexed to regulate a transmission order for a plurality of service unit data has been common knowledge in the data transmission art. To have provided such for Meyer would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art. The motivation for having done such would have been to implement common knowledge data transmission paths for the advertising of Meyer.

Applicant's December 28, 2006 REMARKS have been reviewed and are convincing with regards to the previous rejection. However, the REMARKS are moot in light of the new grounds of rejection.
